Cassie Dog of the month

Cassie is the sweetest and small little lady. She is a small medium dog who loves oother dogs and can live with 5 other dogs no problems. She has chase instinct so squirrels and cats beware. She needs to be carefully watch on her walk as she is on squirrel wath and needs retaining on an extender or trailing line. She is fun and what more fun could you ask for! She loves to meet old people; young children , anyone who will offer her the time of day. She is famous for her one missing white sock...perhaps she'll find it one day with her forever family Waiting for her in a cosy bed and a warm plate of meat and kibble. Meanwhile Cassie is fostered in heartfordshire! Our Queen

1. Benny

Benny is 2 yrs old and grown up in kennels He is comfortable living with other dogs and even kennelled with other dogs. He doesn't like abrupt approaches but will come to you for cuddles no problems. So sad to see him go through his second year in kennels with us but we are confident a Lurcher family will come forwards without children or small furies. Farnham kenns Purity

2. Benson

Benson is just 2 years old and has lived with other dogs very well. He needs to get over his big puppy on the end of the lead stage which his fosterers are now working with. He has retained his housetraining after a year in kennels and adores. No cats or small furies. Really regular kinda guy now and a favourite of our Rescue. Sharing his day with his Muse Muse! A Staffie girl. Fostered Farnborough

3. Bronte

Bronte was found stray and nervous. Bronte is a greyhound cross Shepherd and about 18 months. She built up confidence and was homed with 2 terriers and another Shepherd cross. Sadly she had to be returned as terrier proved too much for her.

She couldn't live with a cat or small furries but excellent large dog companion. She is about 18 months old and would delight both a shepherd and a Lurcher family. She is relaxed in the home and so happy to meet everyone. A large girl with a big heart. Gatwick Kenns. Truly beautiful

4. Bruno

Bruno is a 3 yr old Collie x Lurcher. He is what it says on the tin. If you know lurchers or collies then he is wonderful as you would expect. He can herd; he can be sensitive to the collar..yes Collie!!! He can open doors that are lever handles; he is a food thief and a little possessive of his food..yes Lurcher. He is a love and great with dogs generally. Needs confidence behind him and focus on his training and recall and will an off lead dog. Not for live in children. Gatwick Radiant

5. Bonzo

Bonzo is a collie x bull breed. He is around one year and found nervous on a busy road. Was taken in but the owners dog didn't take to a second dog in the house. Has been kept for the statutory 7 days and now with no reclaim we have neutered and 1st vax. Bonzo bringing it together. Initial meetings are scary for him but indirect treats then offered treats and he settles. He is being introduced to dogs outside as he doesn't seem to have a clue. Farnham Kenns Kind

6. Chrissy

Chrissy Collie x Staffie excellent with children and would suit living with another dog. Not for cats. Needs further training and kind firm approach. Spent over 9 months in kennels as a young dog so still bring her skills and life together. Godalming Pretty

7. Drake

Drake is a Mastiffx who was found stray. He is a large dog and so needs further training to get him to heel whilst walking, but he is attentive and loyal so this should come easily. He seems good with dogs. He worries in kennels and really can't understand why he is there. A handsome Handsome lad Cuddle monster

8. Kailey

Kailey is a young crossbreed; Lurchery feel with a touch of bull maybe. She was found stray & we have recently taken her into our care. She settles with dogs outside & enjoying cuddles & care. Kailey needs a caring home; she is young enough to open out to the opportunities on offer & give you her heart in return. Such a lovely feel about this little girl of about 1 year. She was fostered over Xmas and she proved herself housetrained and such a love in the house and meeting dog well outside Farnham Kens Dearest

9. Kiwi

Kiwi is 18 months old. Who must have had a New Zealander owner who sadly had to give her up as he became homeless and caught a cat. She is looking very sorry for herself and obviously is used to being off lead and having a free life. She is recovering from losing her litter of puppies. Now spayed and just going thru vaccination. She is 18 months old. Such a gentle soul who just wants to snuggle with her head on your lap. Has a whole new future with us and her future owners. Gatwick Kennis Fruity & good for you!

10. Lilly

Lilly Spanish Collie...yes literally she has just got here from Spain. She has always lived with other dogs and had now problems stay with 21 other dogs over Christmas. She is tiny little a pom. But her character is sky high. 7 years old and needs a fun home not a fussy home. She has her collie traits and she can play with your trouser leg but very gently. Pretty little Lilly whoo started out in life called Picklelilly. Doggie people queue to squeeze and extra little one in for Lilly's sake. O'lilly

11. Mia & Chico

Mia Ridgeback x with her partner Chico a gentle Staffie male. An easy pair who have always been loved. Mia ia 4 yrs old and Chico is 8yr. In good health and very good nature.They will be homed together and anyone looking for a pair of dogs will be devoted to these two. Chico loves to play with his

	ball. Both haven't had the life they deserve needing a more active lifestyle. We all love them and will climb every mountain to find them their home and new family. Duo
12. Minnie 	Minnie a 1 year Shepherd x Staffie. Minnie has been with us since she was 5 months old. She was fostered in a multi-dog household but is a large adolescent dog. She needs a concentrated programme to get her to be more disciplined as she is still mouthy. What a really special dog she is withso much fun and excitement. She needs to run and explore life. Gatwick Kenns Just waiting for a Forever promise
13.	No unlucky dogs
14. Nora 	Nora is an American bull dog but the emphasis feels more on the bull dog aspect. She had a painful joint as a 9 month dog and so she has not received normal exercise levels and has gained a lot of weight. She is very affectionate and lives beside other dogs providing they aren't too intrusive. Used to very young children Full history known. Farnham kenns
15. Rico 	Rico is a sweet little Staffie x French Bull dog. He has just the sweetest face. He was very nervous in kennels but now raring to go and so enjoys his walks. Needs a dog experienced person with an active lifestyle so his young energy is exploring and entertaining his audience. He seems comfortable with dogs. We haven't cat tested him. A bit bouncy to have young children around ideally an adult home. Would like to be the work from home person's exerciser! Gatwick Kenns Dishy
16. Tony	Tony is a large American Bull Dog. Sorry to be sizest but you better be warned...size of a Mastiff and a gentle soul with it. He could live with a bitch and has always been around very young children. He is interested in everything and will want to run and

chase birds and..so has always been retained on a lead. Lovely boy now looking for a family to offer him heaps of love. Farnham kenns

17. Ty

Ty is now 11 years old but has such je la vive! He is a 11 month pup! He has always lived in a back garden. Came to us last year and spent a year in boarding kennels with his younger partner Rocky. He was in foster within a multiple dog household and 'settled'. Very special vibe...loves people, adventure and housetrained with attention. Meets dogs well outside. Needs someone around during the day to enjoy his many talents and indulge in his lovely personality. Gatwick Boarding kenns Enthusiasm

Reserved

18. Ellie

Trial Adopt Ellie was found tied to a tree emaciated & turned out to be in early stages of pregnancy when she was spayed. We agreed to find her forever home. Ellie was fostered then homed but home circumstances changed & returned to fosterers. Ellie is our GOLDEN GIRL. She is 3 yrs old & arrived into our care, full of cares. She has proved herself great with all ages of people & dogs. She is fun & she is a dog who truly laughs a lot! She can be left. She meets dogs well. Really wonderful dog. Farnham Kens Tender soul!

19. Busta

Reserved Busta is a 6 year old terrier x collie and the size of a Parson's Jack Russell. His owner died, and although living as an only dog has learned to be fostered with others. He is keen on the lead and very highly trained now as has been involved with agility with his fosterer. Proven to be a great dog and learned to trust strangers, which was a concern for him. Dear soul who is waiting for a terrier or collie home to understands his busy mind and need to space. Herts foster. So wants to please

20. Miriam

Reserved Miriam is a gentle Mastiff who was found stray. She is strong to hold on the lead but is well voice controlled and wants to walk with you its just when her enthusiasm is a little keen. Miriam has not had the opportunity of a foster place so we are not able to tell fine details but she is. Fine indeed. Mrs Darling
